

WASHINGTON, D.C. -Congressman Sam Farr (D-Carmel) is currently accepting applications for nomination to one of the nation's service academies. Operated by the Army, Air Force, Coast Guard, Merchant Marines and Navy, these academies provide a college education in exchange for a commitment to serve as a commissioned officer.

For all service academies (except the Coast Guard), applicants must be nominated by one of several federal officials including the U.S. representatives, U.S. senators and the vice president.

"The Central Coast has sent some outstanding students to our service academies over the years, and I'm looking forward to nominating another great batch of future leaders," said Rep. Farr. "Our academies offer a fantastic education and the chance to serve our country, and I'm proud of all the local students who have attended in the past."

Candidates must be at least 17 years old but not older than 23 as of July 1, 2010. They must reside in California's 17th Congressional District, be U.S. citizens and must never have been married.
